

WEST MEON MUSIC FESTIVAL 2020

Will go ahead – we hope!

We feel in these difficult times music is more important than ever and are therefore hoping to run a reduced version of the festival in September to comply with whatever official guidelines will be in force.

Depending on relevant changes to the Covid-19 regulations, to allow venues to reopen and host safely-controlled gatherings, the festival will take place as planned from Friday 11th September to Sunday 13th. All concerts will be performed by members of the Primrose Piano Quartet in various combinations that feature our popular mix of favourite chamber music: from piano quartets to string trios, piano trios, duo sonatas and solos.

Full programme details will be available shortly on the website (www.westmeonmusic.co.uk) but may be subject to alteration as official guidelines change, possibly allowing greater flexibility. Due to the uncertainty of the situation we have decided not to involve any of our guest performers this year and will instead move our planned tenth anniversary programme to 2021 when we will be joined by Michael Collins (clarinet), Stephen Stirling (horn), Maxim Calder (cell), Roman Kosyakov (piano), Laura Snowden (guitar) and several others.

We very much hope to see as many of our friends and followers as we can safely accommodate this year, and we look forward to celebrating our tenth anniversary in style at next year's festival: September 9-12, 2021.
